Dear Friends,

"Go ye therefore..." Matthew 28:19

A decade ago, the Inapang people of Papua New Guinea were unreached. Without God they were steeped in their own form of animism having intricately woven their attempts to manipulate the spirits together with bits and pieces of organized religion. They chased after every dream and tried every road, but their spiritual quests left them unsatisfied. Then—missionaries reached out. This gained the Inapang people access to needed supplies, crucial medical help, and an awareness of the larger world. More importantly, it introduced them to Jesus. Now, instead of singing to the spirits, they sing praises to the one true God. Missions established this critical link to Christ.

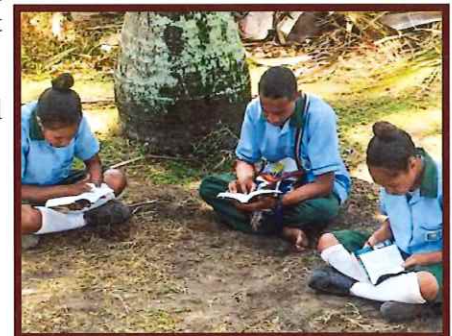

Before Jesus returned to Heaven, He gave His disciples these instructions: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matthew 28:19). That command still stands.

Our June Candidate School is quickly approaching, and we are excited to host around 50 missionaries who will join in the command to "Go ye therefore..." The teaching and training sessions of the week will center on the in's and out's of mission work from deputation to establishing churches. These missionaries will prayerfully impact many countries around the world with the gospel. Please be in prayer for these missionaries as they diligently prepare for service in world missions.

I was blessed to be in North Carolina speaking for two mission conferences during March and April and am thankful for God's blessing in safety, good meetings, and decisions for missions.

The PNG Bible Project continues, and several areas of the country that were yet unreached by the Bible Project have been accessed. The Bibles and message of salvation is always well received, and the school children and adults are truly overjoyed to receive their own copy of God's Word. The Bible Project is touching hearts in isolated, out-of-the-way places in Papua New Guinea, and lives are being changed for God's glory. Thank you for your part in this outreach ministry.

Thank you for your continued prayer and support. We are blessed to see the hand of God at work, and we will be forever grateful for your prayers, support, kindness, and love.

Yours in Christ,

Dan and Sandy DeLong
