

Carolynn Sharp's 2023 Fall Update

Tuesday, October 10, another Liberian general election occurs. Please pray.

Many of you have prayed for Ma Esther. What a blessing it was to speak with her on the phone- at least via Messenger. Amazing grace of God and His answer to prayer. She's back in the New Hope Pregnancy Centre counselling ministry after being gone for almost a year with her health problems. Being widowed with children married or away from home, she has no one to get fuel for the cooking fire, go to the market and help with the 2 – 3 hours it takes to do Liberian cooking. This is a serious challenge for an older person. Pray she will know how to find help.

How we thank God for that donated ultrasound machine in March. Now we rejoice in this recent testimony from the New Hope Pregnancy Center:

“Earlier this year a client lost hope and being under pressure from her boyfriend, she attempted an abortion. It was unsuccessful and in God's mercy, two days later she was at the center where she had an ultrasound done. Seeing her baby convinced her to keep her pregnancy. The last week of September she delivered a healthy baby boy.” (Perhaps you remember the story in my Spring Update of a young lady hanging around the entryway when William encouraged her to come in. It was arranged for her to get added on to the list for those receiving an ultrasound on that training day.) This is the same young lady! Please pray for her salvation.

Another shipment by the Korle Bu Neurological Foundation of Vancouver soon leaves with supplies to Liberia. I have 3 boxes for the NHPC on it, with another group of boxes to go the end of the year. We are so grateful for all this organization is doing for West Africa. I am regularly resourcing, sorting and packing supplies. Pray they will arrive safely.

I am grateful for your prayers and support still during this phase of my life and most of all for God's many blessings, one of which in that my health issues stay under control.

In Christ,

Carolynn Sharp
