

BALINGIT FAMILY

Serving in Halifax, Nova Scotia

Greetings pastors and supporting churches,

July/August 2023

We are so excited to finally say that we are home! On August 23rd, we began the 16 hour drive from Ajax, Ontario - where we had temporarily lived during deputation - to our new home in Halifax, Nova Scotia. While saying goodbye to our family and the many friends we made along the way was difficult, words cannot describe how excited we are to finally be in the city God has called us to! Since arriving last week, we have been working on unpacking and settling into our apartment. There is still much to do and sort out but we are hoping that we will be fully settled in to our new home in the next coming days.

Although we are here now, we will be busy juggling a few things before the launch of our church in the spring of 2024. We still have a few meetings both in the United States, which we will fly to, and some that are closer and within driving distance. These meetings will be scattered over the next few weeks but our last one will be in November. In-between those meetings, we will be going around to a few churches in our province filling in and preaching for their services. And lastly, during all this, we will be focusing on building connections and making contacts in our community, with the hopes of beginning a Bible study either in our home or in a rented space.

We rejoice in what God has been doing and are thankful for all of you who pray and give to our ministry. Because we have seen the power of God present in our life in so many ways, we are confidently trusting that God can and will answer our prayers in His timing and in His way. Please continue to pray that God would give us direction regarding a meeting space. I will spend lots of time over the next few weeks visiting many different community centres, libraries, schools, churches, and any other spaces to find a place to meet and hold Bible studies. Thank you for your investment in our lives and ministry. We look forward to writing the next update letter to share what God has done during these months.
