

Aaron & Kristia Reisinger

June-July 2024

Dear Pastor and praying friends,

What an amazing couple of months we have had this spring. It has been our busiest time on the road traveling thousands of miles and longest time being away from our home, but God has blessed us with many more partners these last few weeks helping our support continue to grow. We are almost fully supported and trust that God will bring in what He knows we need over the next couple months as we wait to hear from some churches we have visited and finish with our scheduled meetings. It is exciting to turn our attention to language school, and relocating (Visas and lodging) to South America.

For years I looked at mission work with such interest and desire, but sadly I was lacking in faith for the “great task” called deputation. Truly I had heard some difficult and sad stories about this process. I often wondered how could I go to another place to share Christ’s love and life changing gospel message without going through this “long and arduous” process. I will say, without a doubt, that there has been long days and nights, traffic, wrecks and construction, less than comfortable accommodations, but God has made this time of pre-field ministry/ deputation not endurable but enjoyable! It has been one of such blessing, spiritual strengthening and encouragement to us. Everyday when I consider what HE has done I think of the verse in Psalms that states, “This is the LORD’S doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.” I share this so that others can be encouraged to step out for God, trust Him now while there is still so much to do and so many waiting to hear of God’s love.

We are thankful to each pastor and ministry that has allowed us to come and share our call and desire to serve in South America. We praise Him for every new friend that has been made and for those whose interest has been stirred to what God is doing elsewhere in the world. May we all be doing our part.

We do ask again for prayer for this time of more focused planning and packing for our big move. We cannot take a shipping container, but rather only what we can fly with us in totes during our trip. We still need to sell a house (with 30 plus years of marriage accumulation) and a vehicle over the next few months and are just trusting the Lord with the timing of it all. We know HE is never late but always on time.

God bless each of you for your love, friendship, prayers and support during this time. We thank God that He has allowed our paths to cross and become labourers together with God.

In His service,

Aaron and Kristia Reisinger
